

Spring 2018 CCDC Advanced Advocacy Training

America Votes!

Colorado Cross-Disability Coalition (CCDC) is excited to announce the following Spring 2018 Advanced Disability Advocacy Class

This training provides an educational opportunity for people with disabilities, families, community activists, allies, and anyone interested in understanding more about our elections process. If you have any of these questions you should attend this training!

- ✓ How do primaries work?
- ✓ Why would anyone want to be part of a political party?
- ✓ How do parties determine their platform and how can a citizen influence these important decisions?
- ✓ What really happens on a campaign?
- ✓ How can we get to know our candidates better before they are elected to office?
- ✓ What are the rights of people with disabilities regarding our participation throughout the process?

Proposed Presenters:

Julie Reiskin – Colorado Cross-Disability Coalition
Senator Morgan Carroll
Colorado Common Cause - Elizabeth Steele
Disability Law Colorado
Colorado House of Representatives

MOST IMPORTANT: We know that ELECTIONS MATTER. We need to vote but what else can we do to be better citizens?
