JUSTICE DENIED? for Neglected and Abused Individuals with Disabilities A Nation-wide Survey

Hi! Have you or your friend or child with a disability also been neglected or abused? Then join together with the angry and troubled Parents of Adults with Disabilities in Colorado (PAD-CO), and folks from all over the United States, and anonymously tell the world your story, and about how investigations are or are not conducted, and the results of those investigations.

The results of the survey and the information gathered will be professionally published in various formats, including online, and will be used to inform local, state and national policymakers, officials in the justice systems, legislators, disability communities and others who can influence and make indicated needed changes. Look for the results in the future at the PAD-CO Web Site
